Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 39 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 21, 33 and 36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by the admitted prior art.
5. Regarding claim 21, the admitted prior art teaches a method comprising: receiving a first TDM signal that includes overhead data a payload data; determining frame boundaries within the first TDM signal; placing the TDM signal into packet engine packets based o the frame boundaries within the TDM signal, wherein a payload of a packet engine packet stores one frame within the TDM signal; receiving a second TDM signal; placing the second TDM signal into second packet engine packet, independent of frame boundaries within the second TDM signal; and generating network packets from the first and second packet engine packets using a same packet processor

Art Unit: 2665

6. Regarding claim 33, the admitted prior art teaches a machine-readable medium that provides instructions, which when executed by a machine, cause the machine to perform operations comprising: receiving a first TDM signal that includes overhead data a payload data; determining frame boundaries within the first TDM signal; placing the TDM signal into packet engine packets based o the frame boundaries within the TDM signal, wherein a payload of a packet engine packet stores one frame within the TDM signal; receiving a second TDM signal; placing the second TDM signal into second packet engine packet, independent of frame boundaries within the second TDM signal; and generating network packets from the first and second packet engine packets using a same packet processor

7. Regarding claims 36-37 the admitted prior art teaches (figure 2) DS-1 and DS-3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art.

10. Regarding claim 38 as for J1, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in this art to adapt J1 to the admitted prior art as it are well known in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 1-20, 27-32 and 40-49 are allowed.

12. Claims 22-26 and 34-35 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

13. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

14. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
